OF THE ### RECORD COMMISSIONERS.

This volume, being the Twenty-first Report of the Record Commissioners, contains, it is hoped, every entry of birth, marriage, and death recorded as happening in the town of Dorchester before the end of the year 1825, and now found in the office of the City Registrar of Boston. Of the earliest entries (pages 1-4, and 20), the original record no longer exists, and they are only known in a copy. The rest of the book is printed directly from the original records in three volumes of manuscript. The first contains births 1646-83, marriages 1663-83, deaths 1657-83; the second contains the years 1684-1744, and the third 1745-1825.

For most of the time the records were fairly well kept, and the writing and spelling are so good as to leave hardly a single name in doubt. But Robert Searle, who was town-clerk from 1693 to 1708, was a very poor writer, and had a peculiar system of spelling (shown on page 122), which has been followed except in the matter of capital letters. To omit these in print, as he did in writing, would be simply a deformity with no desirable result, as the original volumes are easily accessible. After 1805, baptisms are mixed with births, so that it is sometimes hard to say which was meant; and entries are often made out of place, wherever a blank space could be found. An earnest effort was made to print everything in chronological order, but this has not been perfectly done, as some entries were found too late to be put in their proper places, especially in the later years, when a whole family of children were baptized together. The same birth is also often recorded twice, and even three times. Most of the duplicate entries have been omitted.

Great care has been taken with the index, which it is hoped will be found correct and meet with general approval. Various spellings of a name have been usually grouped together, but readers are warned that they may possibly find names intended for the same entered separately under different spellings. It is hoped that none have been wrongly grouped.

The first volume of the records of the First Church of Dorchester, coming down to 1730, has been going through the press at the same time as this volume, under the charge of the Rev. Charles H. Pope. It will be found a fitting and useful companion to the town-records.
